ROSS, United States District Judge:

On October 7, 2005, counsel for the defendant filed a letter with the court, requesting a pre-motion conference to discuss defendant's intention to file a motion for summary judgment or, in the alternative, an order setting a briefing schedule for defendant's motion. As per this court's individual motion practices, all non-moving parties must file a letter in response within seven (7) days from service of the notification letter. As of today, no responses have been filed. The court notes that it has contacted plaintiff's counsel by phone on two occasions to notify her that she is required to reply to defendant's letter. Plaintiff's counsel, however, has been entirely unresponsive. Thus, the court orders defendant to submit a proposed briefing schedule for his motion for summary judgment within ten (10) days of this order.

SO ORDERED.
